

THE BUSWORDS

Do you have something interesting to share in The Buswords with the Busworks' community? Then email isobel@busworks.co.uk

On Our doorstep

If food scores highly on your happiness index, then you might enjoy this culinary tour we recently munched through on your behalf! Following extensive research, here are our faves, right on our doorstep, for you to check out over the final weeks of summer.

Breakfast at Morty & Bob's

Coal Drop's Yard, King's Cross, N1
Forget the after dinner cheeseboard, we say kick start the day the cheesy way!

Dish Not To Miss

Golden and gooey cheese toasty oozing with truffled mushrooms or nduja salami.

Dish Not To Miss

Clams with white wine, peas and saucisson

Lunch at Sardine

Islington N1

A real little gem this one, tucked away from the hustle of the high street with room for just 46 guests. There's a hip, intimate buzz about this place and the food is top notch.

Dinner at Little Viet Kitchen – Chapel Street Market, Islington N1

Winner of this year's Golden Chopsticks Award, for a good reason.

Dish Not To Miss

Lemongrass Tiger Prawns & Pan Tossed Soy Glazed Aubergine.

And for a rocket fuelled mood booster, try their Lychee Gin Cocktail – suck on a lychee and feel utterly intoxicated for the first 30 seconds, before emerging from the alcoholic daze, smiling and relaxed!

What's On

The Pleasance crew are back from Edinburgh Fringe so there's lots to look forward to. Here's one that's sure to draw a crowd so don't hang around getting your tickets.

13TH SEPT - 6TH OCT

Midlife Cowboy | The Pleasance Main House | 2.30, 6.30, 7.30pm

"Warm, funny, moving and very entertaining songs" (Sir Tim Rice)

4TH SEPT

Tech Brek | 11.00am – 11.45am

Free meet up and breakfast for all the Techie clients in the building. Limited tickets are available via Eventbrite. Ask isobel@busworks.co.uk for the link.

Marion's Motto

If your tan is fading fast after your summer hols, enhance it by moisturizing with a little baked bean juice.

BusWords of Wisdom

Problems cannot be solved using the same thinking that created them.

CommUnity Spirit

We did it! Our promo video is done and it is with huge gratitude to all of those in our #busworksbusinesscommunity who were so generous with their time, allowing us in to their working days to observe and film them. Many of you went out of your way to help us (we especially loved the games session in the #commonroom!) and it just reinforced what a great business community this really is. Thanks everyone! The video is going live later this month so we'll keep you posted.