

THE BUSWORDS

Do you have something interesting to share in The Buswords with the Busworks' community? Then email isobel@busworks.co.uk

Pop Up Book Sale

If you love books and reading is one of your favourite pastimes, then this event is for you! The Book People are coming to the Busworks on Thursday, 24th October with their free pop-up book event, bringing you highly discounted books with 10% of ALL sales made on the day given back to a charity of your choosing!

What's On

THURS 10TH OCTOBER

MASSAOKE FOR ONE NIGHT ONLY! | KING'S CROSS |

King's Cross is throwing a massive, live band karaoke party for World Homelessness Day! Massaoke is the live band, sing-along sensation that sweeping the UK. Think karaoke, but a whole lot bigger, and a lot more fun! The brilliant band smashes out the greatest anthems of all time, while big-screen lyrics help the crowd along with everyone singing and dancing their hearts out. Book your tickets now via www.kingscross.co.uk or: www.eventbrite.co.uk/e/massaoke-for-world-homeless-day-tickets-69439602721

A Fluorescent Fun Run

Women and Children First has 3 FREE race places for the unique night-time Supernova 5K run, which takes place in the iconic Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park, on Friday 18th October, 8pm. The run has a relaxed, fun atmosphere, with no time limits, so it's ideal for first-time runners or those wishing to take part with friends, colleagues and family. Wear an LED head torch and run in the dark with hundreds of other runners, wearing your brightest and boldest bling! Contact m.mina@womenandchildrenfirst.org.uk to take part.

BusWords of Wisdom

Be present in the moment as no moment can be saved for later.

Who's New?

Hospitality Hunters & Clarendon Tutors have moved in to United's 'Framespace'; and Truck Festivals UK have moved into United. Welcome to the Busworks Community!

Psst.....Our new website video is live! We'd love your feedback. Visit our homepage and click on Come On In

Marion's Motto

If you feel the summer has lead you to overindulge, keep calm and carry on.